Weekly Saturday Moot Training Sessions

Venue	Moot Court Room, 7th Floor, OES Sanpada Campus
No. of Participants	50-80 students
Introduction	The Weekly Saturday Moot Training Sessions conducted by the Moot Court Association (MCA) at OES Sanpada Campus have proven to be instrumental in nurturing the legal acumen and advocacy skills of the participating students. Led by the dynamic duo of MCA President Lubdha Bhoir and Vice-President Vinit Dhotre, these sessions have garnered considerable interest and engagement among the law student body.
Session Overview	The sessions are meticulously overseen by MCA Chairperson, Assistant Professor Ranjeev Joseph, who ensures that each session is conducted with precision and relevance. The dedicated assistance of Assistant Professors Vinit Pareek and Vivek Tiwari as Co-Chairpersons further enriches the learning experience for the attendees.
Topics Covered	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Bail Application: The intricacies of drafting and presenting bail applications were thoroughly discussed, providing students with practical insights into this crucial aspect of legal practice.2. Anticipatory Bail: Understanding the nuances of anticipatory bail provisions, including eligibility criteria and procedural aspects, formed a significant part of the session's agenda.3. How to Read FIRs: Analysing First Information Reports (FIRs) is an essential skill for any aspiring lawyer. Participants were guided on effective strategies for comprehending and interpreting FIRs accurately.4. How to Present before Hon'ble Bench: Presenting arguments before a bench requires finesse and preparation. Techniques for effective courtroom presentation were elucidated, equipping students with the confidence to articulate their arguments persuasively.
Key Highlights	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Interactive Learning Environment: The sessions fostered an interactive learning environment, encouraging active participation and dialogue among students.• Practical Insights: Real-world examples and case studies were employed to illustrate key concepts, facilitating a deeper understanding of legal principles.• Guidance from Experts: The guidance provided by experienced faculty members, along with the leadership of the MCA office bearers, ensured that the sessions were enriching and informative.
